Seminole County Public Schools has a vacant performance data analyst positon. In an effort to find highly qualified candidates, we are contacting educational research departments at nearby universities in hope that you can assist us. We respectfully request your assistance by forwarding the information below to recent or upcoming graduates. If you have any contacts, consultants or connections to anyone who might be interested in working in Seminole County, Florida (Orlando area), please share the information below and the link to the vacancy. We appreciate any assistance you can provide us.

 Seminole County Public Schools Department of Assessment and Accountability is seeking a performance data analyst to support assessment, accountability and teacher evaluation. The data analyst's primary role will be managing teacher evaluation data to include developing models, calculating scores and working with very large data sets. The positon is full time with options available to accommodate flexible scheduling needs.
Interested applicants can access the job description and vacancy information by clicking the link below.

https://scpsjobs.scps.k12.fl.us/psp/SCPSJOBS/EMPLOYEE/HRMS/c/HRS_HRAM.HRS_CE.GBL